Getting Books not owned by the OSU Libraries (Summit)

The OSU Libraries belong to a library consortium of 39+ libraries in Washington, Oregon and Idaho. We share our resources and have a delivery system for sending materials to each other. If there is a book you want and OSU Libraries does not have it, Summit is your next step.

You can borrow a Summit Book for 6 weeks. There are no renewals.

1. Search for the title of your book or your topic in the 1Search. You’ll find 1Search on the Library home page.

2. Click search. Log in to 1Search in the top right corner. You need to be logged in to place a request.

3. When you locate an item you want, check the availability statement.

4. If it says Request this item, it means the item is at another institution or the OSU Libraries’ copy is checked out.

5. To request delivery of the item, click on the Place Summit request link.

6. To see who owns the item, click on the title of the book. Then click on the Show Libraries link.

This is useful if you live near one of the Summit institutions. You can go directly to that library and borrow the book.

7. Choose your pick-up location from the drop-down menu and click Request.

If you are On-campus, choose the Valley Library. You will get an email when the item arrives and you can pick it up at the Circulation Desk.
If you are Ecampus, choose Home Address as your pickup location. We will mail the book to you. You are responsible for mailing it back to us.

If you live near a university that is part of the Summit system, you can use your OSU ID to borrow books there. You will need to set this up with the circulation desk at your closest Summit library. Be sure to take your OSU ID and another picture ID card. A current list of Summit Libraries is at http://orbiscascade.org/index/member-institutions
