A Matter Outstanding.

The Picture:—The Portland Daily, founded by a correspondent with the idea of "burning the Oregonian" to the ground, has appeared in an issue of the same name. The idea is that the "Oregonian" is a paper with an all-pervasive influence upon the people of Oregon, and that, therefore, it should be burned to the ground. The idea is that the paper is a paper with an all-pervasive influence upon the people of Oregon, and that, therefore, it should be burned to the ground.

By T. B. H. Green.

Pacific Emigration.

The first issue of the "Pacific Emigrant" is published in the midst of a great excitement in the city. The paper is published by a man who has been in the emigrant business for many years, and who is well known in the city. The paper is published by a man who has been in the emigrant business for many years, and who is well known in the city.

THE UNION.

Saturday Morning, Oct. 6.

To the Democracy of Oregon:

The Oregon Central Committee, by their resolution of the 5th inst., recommend the people of Oregon to commit the whole of the power vested in them under this government to the Constitution and laws of the United States, a party.

The Oregon Central Committee, by their resolution of the 5th inst., recommend the people of Oregon to commit the whole of the power vested in them under this government to the Constitution and laws of the United States, a party.

There is more in the army than ever was in the world, and a greater and more determined effort is being made to bring about a peace than has ever been made in the history of the world. The Union is now more than ever in danger of being overthrown, and the more so as the demands for peace are now more than ever before made.

The Oregon Central Committee, by their resolution of the 5th inst., recommend the people of Oregon to commit the whole of the power vested in them under this government to the Constitution and laws of the United States, a party.
