[Continued report on the political situation in the United States, focusing on the Southern states and their stance on secession.]
The Illinois Democracy.

On the 4th of February last, the Legislature of Illinois met at Springfield to commence its session. Nineteen hundred and thirty-five days had elapsed since the last session of the Legislature of Illinois, and the services of each of the members of the 40th General Assembly had been well and faithfully discharged.

The sessions of the Legislature are scheduled for 60 days, but the last day of the session is not to be earlier than the 4th of April, nor later than the 4th of May.
