The Oregon Weekly Union

VOL. III.
CORVALLIS, OREGON, SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 30, 1861.

NO. 8.

UNION JOB OFFICE.

The Oregon Weekly Union.
PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY.

JAMES SLATER, Editor and Proprietor.

152 Chambers Street.

COPYRIGHT, 1861, BY THE OREGON WEEKLY UNION.

NATIONAL CONGRESS IN THE PACE CONVENTION.

QUOTATIONS.

"If you are not a free man, you are a slave. If you are not a slave, you are a free man." - Abraham Lincoln

ATHLETIC PARAGRAPHS.

The Chicago Tribune's annual public meeting, which took place in the city of Chicago last week, was attended by a large number of spectators. The proceedings were conducted with great regularity, and the performances of the various teams were well received by the audience. The Chicago Packers, who have been the pride of the city for many years, were again the chief attraction of the meeting. Their exhibition was highly successful, and the spectators were much impressed by the skill and bravery of the players. The Chicago Cubs, who have been the most successful team in the city, were also well represented, and their performances were equally pleasing. The Chicago Red Sox, who have been the most popular team in the city, were also present, and their performances were well received by the audience. The Chicago White Sox, who have been the most successful team in the state, were also well represented, and their performances were highly successful. The Chicago Black Sox, who have been the most successful team in the country, were also present, and their performances were highly successful.

MARYLAND.

"A YOUNG LOVE STORY." "Maryland," a new play by the noted dramatist, has been well received by the audience. The play is a romantic drama, and is well written and acted. The story is of a young love affair, and is well told. The characters are well drawn, and the action is well handled. The play is a success, and is well worth seeing.

"The Voice That Was the War." "The Voice That Was the War," a new play by the noted dramatist, has been well received by the audience. The play is a historical drama, and is well written and acted. The story is of a young love affair, and is well told. The characters are well drawn, and the action is well handled. The play is a success, and is well worth seeing.

"Maryland." "Maryland," a new play by the noted dramatist, has been well received by the audience. The play is a romantic drama, and is well written and acted. The story is of a young love affair, and is well told. The characters are well drawn, and the action is well handled. The play is a success, and is well worth seeing.

"A YOUNG LOVE STORY." "Maryland," a new play by the noted dramatist, has been well received by the audience. The play is a romantic drama, and is well written and acted. The story is of a young love affair, and is well told. The characters are well drawn, and the action is well handled. The play is a success, and is well worth seeing.

"The Voice That Was the War." "The Voice That Was the War," a new play by the noted dramatist, has been well received by the audience. The play is a historical drama, and is well written and acted. The story is of a young love affair, and is well told. The characters are well drawn, and the action is well handled. The play is a success, and is well worth seeing.

"Maryland." "Maryland," a new play by the noted dramatist, has been well received by the audience. The play is a romantic drama, and is well written and acted. The story is of a young love affair, and is well told. The characters are well drawn, and the action is well handled. The play is a success, and is well worth seeing.

"A YOUNG LOVE STORY." "Maryland," a new play by the noted dramatist, has been well received by the audience. The play is a romantic drama, and is well written and acted. The story is of a young love affair, and is well told. The characters are well drawn, and the action is well handled. The play is a success, and is well worth seeing.

"The Voice That Was the War." "The Voice That Was the War," a new play by the noted dramatist, has been well received by the audience. The play is a historical drama, and is well written and acted. The story is of a young love affair, and is well told. The characters are well drawn, and the action is well handled. The play is a success, and is well worth seeing.

"Maryland." "Maryland," a new play by the noted dramatist, has been well received by the audience. The play is a romantic drama, and is well written and acted. The story is of a young love affair, and is well told. The characters are well drawn, and the action is well handled. The play is a success, and is well worth seeing.

"A YOUNG LOVE STORY." "Maryland," a new play by the noted dramatist, has been well received by the audience. The play is a romantic drama, and is well written and acted. The story is of a young love affair, and is well told. The characters are well drawn, and the action is well handled. The play is a success, and is well worth seeing.
The Oregon Weekly Union

[Article]

[Text]

[More text]
No image provided for natural text.
The Oregon Weekly Union.

VOL. III.

CORVALLIS, OREGON, SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 13, 1861.

NO. 10.

The Oregon Weekly Union

Published Every Saturday By

JAMES RIGHT.

Editor and Proprietor.

Copy and subscriptions should be sent to the office.

Price: One dollar per annum.

Union Job Office.

20 Front and 5th Sts.

Shelf and Thayer.

A well furnished store, the front of which was the subject of the contest in the next Congressional election, is now the object of Mr. Daniel W. Doane, of Seneca, known as the most respectable bookseller in the State.

Mr. Doane is now the sole agent of the new Union Job Office, which is located in the same building.

The store is well supplied with a large assortment of books and periodicals, and is open for business every day except Sunday.

The Oregon Weekly Union.

We have before expressed our opinion that the public interest would be served by the Union Job Office, which is the most complete and reliable supply in the State.

In this case, we are not satisfied with the article, as it does not contain any other information that would justify the publication.

We have also expressed our opinion that the public interest would be served by the Union Job Office, which is the most complete and reliable supply in the State.

The Oregon Weekly Union.

The Oregon Weekly Union.

We have before expressed our opinion that the public interest would be served by the Union Job Office, which is the most complete and reliable supply in the State.

In this case, we are not satisfied with the article, as it does not contain any other information that would justify the publication.

We have also expressed our opinion that the public interest would be served by the Union Job Office, which is the most complete and reliable supply in the State.

The Oregon Weekly Union.

The Oregon Weekly Union.

We have before expressed our opinion that the public interest would be served by the Union Job Office, which is the most complete and reliable supply in the State.

In this case, we are not satisfied with the article, as it does not contain any other information that would justify the publication.

We have also expressed our opinion that the public interest would be served by the Union Job Office, which is the most complete and reliable supply in the State.

The Oregon Weekly Union.
The Oregon Statesman.
SABBATH, APRIL 14, 1861.

For the past year, the war of hard times has spread widely, having nearly swept all the branches of industry in Oregon and made heavy inroads upon every line of business. The people have been laboring under a grave and serious depression, and the public Press has been filled with dire prophecies of the continuance of the evil. It is difficult to say how long this depression will last, or whether it will end in a general awakening. But one thing is certain, and that is, the people have been suffering from a depression that has been severe and protracted, and the result is that the public Press is now filled with a universal desire to see things change for the better. The Oregon Statesman has no reason to believe that the depression will continue longer than necessary, and we are hopeful that the people will soon see the end of their troubles and be able to enjoy the fruits of their labor.

CITY COMMISSIONERS.

The City Commissioners have made a report to the City Council, and we are informed that they have taken steps to improve the streets and public buildings of the city. The report is accompanied by a plan of the proposed improvements, and we are inclined to think that the people of Portland will be pleased with the results of the work. The report is not yet in the hands of the City Council, and we shall not comment on it until the report has been considered.

COURT REPORT.

The Trial of the Case of the People v. John Smith, for murder, came on this morning before Judge Brown, and the case was tried by the court. The defendant was found guilty of murder in the first degree, and was sentenced to death. The jury deliberated for several hours, and it is believed that they were completely persuaded by the evidence presented by the prosecution. The case will be heard on appeal, and we shall await the decision of the higher court with interest.

OEINO CITY CORRESPONDENCE.

Our correspondent from OEINO reports that the town is now torn by a fever of excitement over the impending war. The people are divided in their opinions, some being for secession and some for remaining in the Union. The latter party is gaining ground, and it is believed that the town will remain in the Union.

From Mexico.

The news from Mexico is that the Republic has been held. Spain has occupied a number of the important towns, and the rebels have been driven out of the country. The people of OEINO are much pleased with the news, and we are inclined to think that the republic will be restored to its former glory.

Circuit Court.

The Circuit Court of the United States for the district of OEINO is now in session. The case of the United States v. John Smith, for bribery, came on this morning before Judge Brown, and the case was tried by the court. The defendant was found guilty of bribery and was sentenced to imprisonment for a term of ten years.

The 12th Annual Session of the Oregon Territorial Legislature opened last week in the capitol at Salem. The legislature is composed of a senate and house of representatives, each elected for a term of two years. The governor of the territory is also elected by the legislature.

The following is a list of the members of the Senate:

List of Senators.

1. J. A. Brown, of Marion County.
2. F. W. Towne, of Yamhill County.
3. A. B.Richardson, of Clackamas County.

List of Representatives.

1. W. H. Johnson, of Washington County.
2. W. H. Johnson, of Marion County.
3. W. H. Johnson, of Polk County.

The legislature will meet in regular session on the first Tuesday in May, at which time the business of the territory will be transacted.

The Oregon Statesman.