The Oregon Weekly Union.

VOL. III.

CORYALLIS, OREGON, SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 25, 1861.

THE Chosen Prophet.

...and an angel stood beside him, saying: 'Rise, and carry the glad tidings of great joy which shall be unto all people: for unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you: Ye shall find the Babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.'

A Most Unusual Situation.

...a young man of twenty, named Harry, who had lived in the settlement for two years, was unexpectedly called to the colors. He was the only one in the settlement who was drafted, and he had to leave his family to join the army. It was a difficult time for him, but he knew he had to obey the call of his country.

The Virginia Convention.

...the Virginia Convention has met and adjourned without doing anything. The convention was called to discuss the issue of slavery, but the delegates could not agree on a course of action.

The News of the Day.

...the President of the United States has issued a proclamation declaring a national fast day. The fast day will be observed on Friday, April 17th. The President has called on the people to pray for the end of the war and the reunification of the nation.

Society News.

...Miss Susan Brown has returned from her European tour and is now residing in Portland. She has brought back many interesting stories about her travels. She plans to write a book about her experiences.

Advertisements.

We offer the following positions for those interested in employment.

- A local merchant is looking for two sales clerks.
- A local newspaper is seeking a full-time reporter.
- A local restaurant is hiring a chef.

Obituary.

...the news of the death of Mr. John Smith has been received with sadness by the community. Mr. Smith was a well-respected businessman and a pillar of the community. His funeral will be held on Saturday at 10 am, followed by a service at the local church at 11 am.

Sports.

...the local baseball team has started their season with a victory over the visiting team. The game was close, but the home team pulled ahead in the final inning to win by a score of 7-5.