THE GEORGETOWN REPORT.

WASHINGTON, October 16th, 1861.

The special correspondent of the Day in the Capital, Washington, has been informed that the United States Government has decided to establish a post office in the town of Georgetown, District of Columbia, on the 16th day of October next, at a cost of $100,000.

THE OREGON WEEKLY UNION.

PORTLAND, Oreg., October 10th, 1861.

A petition has been presented to the State Legislature asking for the establishment of a railway from Portland to the Pacific Ocean.